

Save the Date

Dear Class of 2021 Families,

Waynesboro High School is pleased to present to you dates for graduation events this May. While there is no way of knowing what safety guidelines will be in force this May, it is the intention of Waynesboro High School to provide commencement exercises as close to “normal” as possible. Below are important dates and initial information that will guide you as your family makes plans for this special occasion. More specific and detailed information will be provided as we approach May. We look forward to sharing this special occasion with all of you!
