

WOW Program FAQ's

1. Q: What does the acronym WOW mean?

A: WOW stands for Warriors on Wisconsin. The name comes from our location along Wisconsin Avenue and that we are all Rice Lake Warriors!

2. Q: What type of student attends the WOW program?

A: Students attending the WOW program are looking for a smaller school environment, closer personal relationships with teachers and students, and individualized learning opportunities.

3. Q: What steps do I go through to enroll in WOW?

A: Students wishing to enroll in WOW should access a referral form located HERE, or on the district website under the WOW program.

4. Q: Am I allowed to take classes at the high school?

A: Yes, students are allowed to take classes at both the WOW program and the high school. With our new location near the high school, students are able to more easily take classes at both schools concurrently.

5. Q: What makes WOW a different high school experience?

A: WOW boasts a smaller and more personal learning environment. Each student receives a personalized education plan best suited to their needs. This personalized education plan may be to work on credit acceleration, credit recovery or onsite online learning.

6. Q: If RLHS is not working for me, can I transfer to WOW anytime during the school year?

A: Students are able to transfer between WOW and the high school at the conclusion of the high school terms/quarters.

7. Q: Can I participate in high school sports & activities while being a WOW student?

A: Yes, all high school activities, sports, and clubs are available to students both at RLHS and the WOW program.

8. Q: Can I be in WOW all four years?

A: Students can attend WOW for all four years of high school. However, students are encouraged to take courses that fit their individual goals at the RLHS campus. A student's educational plan may determine the length of stay in the WOW program.

9. Q: Is the diploma/transcript different at WOW from those from Rice Lake High School?

A: No, the WOW program is part of Rice Lake High School; therefore, all diplomas and transcripts are the same.

10. Q: Where is the WOW program located?

A: The WOW program is located in a separate building from the high school on the corner of Augusta Street and Wisconsin Avenue.