

Erin Crawford

Erin Crawford was a 2003 graduate of Hillsborough High School. While attending high school, she excelled in track. During the winter of her junior year, Erin placed second in the 400 meters and was the Group IV state champion in the 800 meters. She was also the conference champion in the 400 and 800 meters. In that same year, the Courier News recognized her as the Athlete of the Year and the Star Ledger sighted her as the Somerset County Athlete of the Year.

In the spring of her junior year, Erin became the conference champ in the 400 hurdles, Central Jersey Group IV champion in the 400 hurdles and the 400 meters, and the Group IV state champion in the 400 hurdles. At the end of the season, she was selected to the 1st team All County, All-Area and Group IV All-State teams.

In the winter of her senior year, Erin placed 2nd in the Group IV 400 meters and 4th in the Group IV 800 meters. She was the conference champion in the 55 hurdles and in the 400 meters. Erin was selected to the All-County, All-Conference and Group IV All-State teams.

In the spring of her senior year, Erin placed 5th in the 400 meters at the Penn Relays and was the conference champion in the 100 and 400 meter hurdles. She was also the county champion in the 100 and 400 hurdles, and, in the 400 meters. Once again, she was selected onto the All-County, All-Conference and Group IV state teams.

It is because of her outstanding track accomplishments that the committee has selected Erin Crawford to the 2009 Hillsborough Athletic Hall of Fame induction class.
