

Ron Farneski

Ron graduated from Hillsborough High School in 1976. In his senior year Ron was the Somerset County Player of the year. He was selected to the Somerset All-County Team and made the 2nd team Group II All-State football team. He was acknowledged by the Somerville Lions Club as the 1975 Athlete of the Year and was in the Top 100 Athletes from the New York Daily News.

After high school, Ron attended Syracuse University where he lettered three times for football.

It is because of his excellence in the sport of football that the Hall of Fame Committee is honored to have Ron Farneski inducted in the class of 2009.
