

Candice Palumbo

Candice Palumbo is a 2005 graduate of Hillsborough High School.

Candice was an outstanding Varsity softball player all four years of high school. She led her team to a Skyland Conference Championship in 2005 as well as 3 Somerset County Championships. Her post-season awards included 4-time First Team All-Area, 4-time First Team All-County, 2-time First Team All-State Group IV.

After graduating from HHS, Candice attended Monmouth University where she played softball in the NEC Tournament two out of her 4 years there. She was the winner of the Sports Medicine Award in 2008 for coming back from surgery for a torn ACL and meniscus in 3 months to compete in her entire championship season.

Candice is currently coaching softball out of Diamond Nation for the Finch's Aces 18U travel organization and providing one-on-one instruction as well. She was a member of the USSSA All-World team that won the USSSA Coed National Championship in October 2013 in Orlando, Florida.

The Hall of Fame Committee is proud to induct Candice Palumbo into the class of 2014.

