

Tim Fedroff

Tim Graduated from Hillsborough High School in 2006. Tim was an exceptional baseball player for HHS. His conference and county honors include being selected to the 1st Team All Somerset County in 2003, 2004, 2005 and 2006; the 1st team All Skyland Conference in 2003, 2004, 2005 and 2006; the 1st Team All Area in 2004, 2005 and 2006; the 3rd Team All Area in 2003.

His state and national honors include 1st Team All State in 2005 and 2006; 1st Team All District in 2005 and 2006; 1st Team All Group 4 in 2005 and 2006; 1st Team All American in 2006 and 3rd Team All American in 2005.

Tim was also named the Somerset County Rookie of the Year by the coaches in 2003. The Star Ledger named him Athlete of the Week on May 22nd, 2003, Slugger of the Year in 2004, and Player of the Year in 2006. He was team captain in 2005 and 2006 and currently holds the Somerset County career Home run record with 34.

His HHS honors also include the MVP Award in 2003, 2004, 2005 and 2006, Best Hitter Award in 2003, 2004, 2005 and 2006. In 2003 he batted .468 and led the team in homeruns with 4; in 2004 he batted .357 and led the team in homeruns with 10 and as a pitcher had a 1.64 ERA and was 5-1; During the 2005 season he batted .534 and led the team in homeruns with 10, had a 3.23 ERA and was 5-0 as a pitcher and helped the team win the NJ State Championship; in 2006 he batted .573 and led the team in homeruns with 10 and was a 2006 Topps NJ Prospect.

After HHS, Tim attended the University of North Carolina from 2006 to 2008. There he was selected to the 1st Team All ACC in 2008, 2nd Team All ACC in 2007, the All ACC Tournament Team in 2007. He was also named Freshman All American in 2007, All American in 2008, selected to the All College World Series Team in 2007 and 2008 and was a Preseason All American in 2007. In 2007 he batted .344 and did not commit an error in the outfield; in 2008 he batted .404 which was third in the nation. Also, Tim's team was the runner up in the College World Series in 2007 and was third in the College World Series in 2008.

Later in 2008, Tim entered the professional ranks when he was drafted by the Cleveland Indians Organization. He was named to 40 man roster in the 2013 season, was the 2012 Lou Boudreau Award Minor League Player of the Year and was an Organizational All Star in 2011 and 2012. he was a Postseason All Star in 2009, a Topps EAS Player of the Month in May of 2011 and was Player of the Week for May 23rd , 2011.

The HHS Hall of Fame Committee is proud to induct Tim into the Class of 2015 Athletic Hall of Fame.